MINUTES OF THE
ONE-HUNDRED-FIFTEENTH*
ANNUAL MEETING
HOME MISSION SOCIETY

San Francisco, Calif., June 3, 1949

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1949

The Society was called to order by the President, Rev. Sidney W. Powell, of Massachusetts.

On motion of Secretary R. Dean Goodwin, of New York, the minutes of the annual meeting of the Society, held in Milwaukee, Wis., May 28, 1948 (see page 106 of the Northern Baptist Convention Year Book, 1948), were approved.

The annual report of the Board of Managers was presented by Secretary G. Pitt Beers, of New York, and, on his motion, was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was presented by Rev. C. B. Jensen, of Massachusetts, Chairman of the Committee.

T. P. Russell, of California, placed in nomination the name of Rev. W. E. Appleberry, of California, as a member of the Board of Managers, in place of Mrs. Robert Ford, of New Jersey.

On motion of Rev. R. E. E. Harkness, of Pennsylvania, the nominations were closed.

The ballots were collected.

On motion, the Society adjourned to meet later to hear the report of the tellers.

The American Baptist Home Mission Society was called to order by the Vice-president, Rev. C. O. Harding, of New York.

Rev. G. E. Harris, of California, reported on behalf of the tellers that in the election of officers a total of 1,077 ballots had been cast, that 95 ballots had been cast for Rev. W. E. Appleberry, 982 ballots for Mrs. Robert Ford, and 1,077 ballots for the other candidates nominated by the Committee on Nominations. Thereupon, the presiding officer declared that the candidates nominated by the Committee on Nominations had been elected as follows:

President, T. B. Clausen, Trumansburg, N. Y.

Vice-president, J. R. Gray, Waukesha, Wis.

Second Vice-president, Mrs. Howard Burkhardt, Twin Falls, Idaho

Third Vice-president, Rev. N. W. Paullin, Philadelphia, Pa.

Recording Secretary, Rev. R. Dean Goodwin, New York, N. Y.

* Annual Meetings in 1943 and 1945 were canceled due to war conditions.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Term ending 1952

Rev. F. G. Codd, Davenport, Iowa

Duncan Dunbar, White Plains, N. Y.

Rev. R. N. Dutton, St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Robert Ford, Paterson, N. J.

H. A. Gilman, Boston, Mass.

Rev. L. M. Hale, Lincoln, Neb.

Rev. G. D. McClelland, Wichita, Kans.

Omer Robbins, Detroit, Mich.

Rev. C. E. Shikles, Everett, Wash.

The Society adjourned.

R. DEAN GOODWIN, Recording Secretary.

HOME MISSION FEATURES AT THE NORTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

The meeting of the Northern Baptist Convention, in San Francisco, Calif., May 30 to June 3, 1949, was particularly significant for home missions. It was the 100th anniversary of the beginning of Baptist work in California. That work began with the sending of Rev. Osgood C. Wheeler as the first missionary of The American Baptist Home Mission Society to California in 1849. He founded the first Baptist church in San Francisco, and established Baptist work in many other parts of the state.

Home Missions came into the program of the Convention in the following places:

TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1949

7.30 P.M. "Crusaders Hymn of Praise," a dramatic report of the two-year program of the Crusade for Christ Through Evangelism.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1949

9.20 A.M. Rosa O. Hall Award.

9.40 A.M. Juvenile Protection Program.

2.15 P.M. "More Precious than Gold," a pageant presenting the work of the Associated Home Mission Agencies of the Northern Baptist Convention. This was a historical pageant and included testimonies by contemporary missionaries and converts.

THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1949

2.35 P.M. The Chung Mei Home for Chinese boys was given ten minutes for the boys to sing.

7.30 P.M. Dedication Service for all new missionaries including the missionaries of our Society.

Throughout the sessions of the Convention there was an evangelistic mission to the host city with ministers speaking on the radio and with an outdoor service in the Civic Center Plaza.

Fellowship opportunities for rural ministers were offered by the Town and Country Department with a luncheon at the Clinton Cafeteria. There were other luncheons or dinners for various groups, as follows: Juvenile Protection Program Committee, Chaplains, Midwestern State and City Secretaries to give them an opportunity to meet Harold Schlink, the new Midwestern representative, Town and Country Fellowship, Christian Center leaders, National Committee and Directors of the Crusade for Christian through Evangelism, Department of Evangelism, and Board of Managers, staff members and missionaries dinner at the Chinese Baptist Church for The American Baptist Home Mission Society group.

The exhibit was jointly prepared with the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society and our Society.

ONE-HUNDRED-SEVENTEENTH

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY

We are going through one of the great revolutionary periods of history, politically, economically, and socially. Only those who can adapt themselves to new situations with new methods can share in building humanity's future. Such adjustments are constantly being made by the Board of Managers of The American Baptist Home Mission Society.

This year has seen some major undertakings. For the first time we are making a systematic approach to cities of 100,000 to 500,000 population. The National Planning Conference on the Church in Town and Country is the first such conference we have held in that field. The beginnings of a careful search for missionary personnel is being enlarged. We have not dropped our ministry to service men but have adapted our program to the present. In evangelism we have led for two years the most aggressive program our denomination has ever had. Our edifice funds have been carefully husbanded so that in church extension and in housing churches already established, we are prepared to render effective service.

All of this required changes in organization and assignment of responsibilities. A year ago we separated the work of Rural and Indian Missions from the more general Town and Country work. Rev. Joseph H. Heartberg came to our staff to head the former department, Dr. Mark Rich continuing with the latter. Now Mr. Heartberg is also given the responsibility for service men's work, leaving Mr. Witham free to give his full time to discovery and development of missionary personnel. Dr. Bratcher's work in the West has proved so fruitful that the Board has decided to place another man on our staff to do similar work in the Middle West. Rev. Harold A. Schlink, pastor of the Morningside Church, Pittsfield, Mass., has been called to that work to assume his duties May 1, 1949.

DEPARTMENT OF CITIES

The work of the city church has become increasingly difficult. Yet unless the Christian Church can bring Christ to redeem the city, we shall fail to redeem America. Emphasis will be given to the redemption of the city in the Conference of Home Mission Executives at Green Lake, Wis., July 27 to 30, 1949. Also there will be an Urban Convocation on an interdenominational basis at Columbus, Ohio, January 23 and 24, 1950.

Bilingual Churches

Bilingual churches face the usual difficulties of city work, and also problems of inadequate education of many bilingual pastors, failure to adjust to changing customs, and the dispersion of populations of the various national backgrounds. In spite of these difficulties many bilingual churches today have made notable achievement through great sacrifice.

Japanese-American and Chinese-American Churches

Churches for people of Oriental descent are becoming English-speaking more and more. War brides from China are being given English lessons. There still is some demand for classes in the Chinese language for the children. Most Orientals live on the West Coast where they are segregated in many ways. Orientals sometimes accentuate this by forming a society of their own. In the East and Midwest segregation for the Oriental is tending to disappear. The notable example of a workable and thriving interracial church is the First Baptist Church of Chicago, Ill.

Spanish-speaking Work and the Spanish-American Baptist Seminary

In the appointment of Rev. Adam Morales as our Field Representative among Spanish-speaking people and also as a faculty member of the Spanish-American Baptist Seminary, we are nearer to unifying our work with Spanish-speaking people than we have been in a long time. In the school he interprets the needs of the mission field and also supervises the work of the students in some of our Mexican churches in Southern California. On his field trips he represents our Society, and also gives a threefold service to the school: recruiting students, promoting the school, and helping to place the graduating students in pastorates.

Alaska

Our work at Kodiak, Alaska, has prospered and we have been able to give a well-rounded ministry to the towns and villages of the islands. We have ministered through the Kodiak Community Baptist Church, and, with the leadership of Rev. R. N. Wilkinson, a successful radio ministry has been developed.

Christian Centers

The Christian Center program is going through a period of expansion. The Lincoln Christian Center, Sacramento, Calif., for example, has increased its budget from $5,500 in 1943 to $22,000 in 1949. Most of the increase has come from contributions by the local Community Chest. Certain principles concerning the administration of Christian Centers have been accepted by us, the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society, and the Associated Home Mission Agencies. They pertain to the composition of the boards of direction for our Centers, to employment principles, to program content, and to spiritual emphasis.

Church Extension

Fifty-five men under our appointment are working in Church Extension. This work now includes what formerly was called Civilian Emergency Service. Some of these so-called temporary areas of service have become some of our best permanent opportunities.

Surveys and Research

Rev. Jobu Yasumura has surveyed Church Extension fields and Christian Center areas in Mission Township, Kansas City, Kans.; Topeka, Kans.; Akron, Ohio; Dayton, Ohio; and Newport, R. I. Other surveys are being planned.

Directors of State-Related Cities Work

Improved service to the State Convention related cities is now well begun. We have appointed two state directors of city work: Rev. Arthur Lacey for New York and Rev. W. K. Morgan for Pennsylvania.

Baptist Educational Centers

The first Training Conference for directors and staff members of our Educational Centers was held November 15 to 18, 1948, in the Baptist Educational Center in Harlem, New York City. Eleven of the twelve directors were present. The techniques in this specialized field of service were carefully studied. The name "Baptist Educational Center" was officially adopted so that the word "Negro" would not be used when references are made to this interracial educational program.

Training Conferences

Six training conferences are planned in 1949, for: (1) Nisei-Issei, (2) workers with Spanish-speaking people, (3) Directors of State-Related Cities Work, (4) Bilingual workers, (5) Baptist Educational Center leaders, and (6) Christian Center workers.

Displaced Persons

We work with the Baptist World Alliance to settle displaced persons. Dr. R. L. Howard, formerly with the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, has been appointed Co-ordinator for Displaced Persons' Work under the Baptist World Alliance. We co-operate also with Church World Service in this urgent work for displaced persons.

Juvenile Protection Program

Since the coming of Rev. C. G. Hansen to be Director of the Juvenile Protection Program, this service to Baptist churches has grown amazingly. Juvenile Protection Sunday is being observed in a growing number of churches. The Manual of Methods has been revised. We have noted a growing demand for our literature from our Baptist constituency and also from other denominations and groups. Plans are well under way for recreation leaders' laboratory schools in California, Colorado, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Rhode Island in the summer of 1949. The National "Rec Lab" at Green Lake, Wis., will be held June 22-29. The Junior Citizens' Camps will be expanded into Northern California, Iowa, Nebraska, and South Dakota. The National Junior Citizens' Camp will be held again at Camp Okalona, Wolcottville, Ind., July 12-25.

It is with regret that we announce the resignation, effective February 28, of Miss R. G. Maguire from the Juvenile Protection Program's staff.

TOWN AND COUNTRY DEPARTMENT

Advance Program

A National Planning Conference for Northern Baptist churches in Town and Country met at Green Lake, Wis., July 28-August 3, 1948, to plan a program and strategy for rural church work. The 130 delegates included rural pastors, state convention secretaries, national executives, Board members, Directors of Town and Country Work, educators, women workers and laymen.

A body of findings was accepted and a Platform of Rural Church Advance adopted for reference to the Associated Home Mission Agencies which sponsored the conference. Six leaflets reporting the conference have been printed: Report of the National Planning Conference, A Platform of Rural Church Advance, The Mission of the Rural Church, Training for the Rural Ministry, The Importance of the Rural Church, and A Program for the Local Church.

The Platform of Rural Church Advance presents 33 goals upon which rural church effort will focus until 1951. These goals are grouped under these headings: "Toward a Trained Ministry," "Toward Adequate Support for a Trained Ministry," "Toward Better Public Relations," "Toward a Better Program in the Local Church," and "Organization and Relationships."

A Commission on Rural Advance, recommended by the National Planning Conference, has been organized by the Associated Home Mission Agencies. The Commission, composed of representatives from agencies engaged in rural work, is under the leadership of the Department of Town and Country Work of our Society. Its functions are to review the progress in achieving the goals in the Platform of Rural Church Advance, to counsel with agencies in rural church work, to plan an over-all strategy, and to plan for a Northern Baptist Quadrennial Conference on the Church in Town and Country in 1951.

Rural Church Center

Rural Church Center at the Northern Baptist Assembly, Green Lake, Wis., has entered its fifth year. Director H. C. Loughhead resigned during the year. Rev. Lawrence Janssen has served as Acting Director. Three schools have been held. Attendance at the January school reached a total of 37 ministers and wives, the highest attendance to date. Fourteen children came with parents.

Directors of Town and Country Work

Twenty-two state directors are now under appointment. These workers build up churches, make surveys, counsel pastors, encourage outreach and interchurch adjustments, plan conferences and encourage the observance of special rural life days.

Rosa O. Hall

At the Milwaukee Convention the Rosa O. Hall certificate for distinguished service in town and country churches was conferred upon two pastors: Rev. Ralph Karney, Michigan, and Rev. L. Clarke Grandfield, Illinois.

RURAL AND INDIAN MISSIONS

Our Ministry to the Indians

The Indian people respond slowly to the gospel and a missionary must have patience. However, there are encouraging signs. Church weddings, unknown previously, are now taking place. On November 28, 1948, the first church wedding ever to be held in Deyo's Mission, near Lawton, Okla., was solemnized. Among the Hopis, Second Mesa, Ariz., this past summer several church weddings have been held. Another indication of progress is the way Indian lay pastors serve several Indian churches under the supervision of our missionary at Anadarko, Okla.

There is a shortage of personnel and resources. In California, for example, one missionary is responsible for bringing the Christian gospel to the people of an area larger than the state of Connecticut. The four Indian churches in the mountainous area, where large numbers of Caucasian people live, as well as Indians, provide the only Christian witness. Our newly appointed missionary to Keams Canyon, Ariz., Rev. Earl Robertson, will serve the Navajo Indians in a territory of 900 square miles. It will be necessary for him to learn the Navajo language before he can minister adequately.

Interdenominational Work Among Indians

We co-operate with Home Missions Council in the literacy program among the Navajos, in partial support of the Cook Training School at Phoenix, Ariz., and religious work directors at Sherman Institute, Riverside, Calif., and Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kans.

Bacone College and Murrow Indian Orphans' Home

The inauguration of President F. W. Thompson, of Bacone College, on October 1, was a significant event. New interest in Bacone and Murrow Indian Orphans' Home is being evidenced locally, an excellent school spirit is developing on the campus, and both the educational and religious needs of the students are being met. A $45,000 gymnasium has just been completed for a constructive recreational program. The Advisory Board of Bacone College meets twice a year. Members represent the Board of Managers of our Society, the Northern Baptist Convention and residents of Oklahoma, including alumni of Bacone.

Missionary Pastors, General Missionaries, Colporters

Missionary pastors are being aided in 20 states. Increasing self-support of this work by the local churches has marked their progress. In some states we have general missionaries. Religious surveys of new communities are made, new churches are organized and nurtured, old churches which are passing through crises are assisted, evangelistic campaigns are held, co-operation is given in interdenominational religious work, and many other phases of the work of God's Kingdom are given attention. A Director of Missions in Arizona will be appointed. Our Nevada missionary and others interested have established a church in a new section in South Reno. We are in a co-operative work at North Richland, Wash., in a temporary construction camp where some 10,000 people live. Colporter missionaries now centralize their work more intensively in a given area rather than traveling from place to place.

Summer Service Projects and Student Summer Service

Two effective summer service projects were held the past year, in Hulett, Wyo., and Rio Grande, Ohio. A score of young people worked on these fields and shared in an inspirational fellowship while serving. Seminary students also served during their summer vacations at Crow Agency, Mont., Keams Canyon, Ariz., Arco, Idaho, Rangely, Colo., and Powers Lake, N. Dak.

Field Studies

Our field representative, Rev. C. R. McBride, has studied and evaluated several rural missions. A careful joint study was made by the secretaries and field representatives of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society and our Society of the Indian fields in Arizona, California, Nevada, and Montana where the Societies work jointly. These studies will help determine future policies.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

Crusade for Christ through Evangelism

We have given ourselves wholeheartedly to the denominational Crusade for Christ through Evangelism. The Executive Secretary, as Executive Director of the Crusade, and our Secretary of Public Relations, as Literature Secretary of the Crusade, have given large portions of their time to the work. The Department Secretary, our Area Directors, our Directors of Evangelism for Youth, and for Women, and our state evangelistic appointees have given the Crusade priority.

Ten Day Co-operative Crusades

The major feature of the Crusade during the past year has been the Ten Day Co-operative Crusade, a plan for mobilizing our Baptist churches in groups for simultaneous gospel preaching and evangelistic outreach. It combines a week-end program of youth evangelism, special evangelistic preaching services, home visitation evangelism and community outreach. Almost every state in the Northern Baptist Convention has followed this plan in one or more centers. Some communities have secured the co-operation of churches of other evangelical denominations, as in San Bernardino, Calif., Brattleboro, Vt., and Bloomington, Ill.

These Crusades leave behind them pastors trained to direct home visitation evangelism, young people trained to put on week-end evangelism for youth, laymen trained and experienced in winning friends for Christ in their homes, as well as many accessions of new members to the churches. In areas where Baptist churches are far apart, an adaptation of the Ten Day Co-operative Crusade was used. To provide adequately trained youth leadership for the Ten Day Crusades, our Director of Youth Evangelism held training clinics for picked youth leaders across the country.

Winning the Children for Christ

Our program of "Winning the Children for Christ," in co-operation with the Board of Education and Publication, has six full-time woman directors. They have trained Baptist women to discover unchurched children, gather them for Bible Story Hours into near-by Baptist homes, teach them gospel songs and stories and guide them in interesting handwork. They send them home to tell Bible stories to their parents and other children with build-up pictures, and enroll them during the five weeks of these programs in church school. This work is now done at two age levels, 4 to 7 and 8 to 13.

Evangelism for Women

Miss Rose Williams has directed Baptist women in the Crusade. She is in continual demand to speak on evangelism to local church groups, conventions, associations, women's house parties, ministers' conferences, youth assemblies, etc.

Home Visitation Evangelism

Our Area Directors, State Directors of Evangelism, and pastors that we have trained have directed many Five-day Home Visitation Crusades this past year in churches that have not felt equal to the more exacting program of the Ten Day Crusade. The demand for home visitation materials has been greater than in any previous year.

Radio and Movie House Evangelism

Our first venture in Radio Evangelism last year, six fifteen-minute transcriptions under the title There Is an Answer, proved so useful that we produced a second series of six messages on the Epistle to the Romans. A movie trailer, a two-minute 35 mm. film, professionally produced under the title Do You Go to Church?, has been shown to tens of thousands in the movie houses of cities and towns from coast to coast. When televised at Schenectady, N. Y., we were told that it was the first religious movie trailer to be put out by television. These special features were made possible by the special funds of the Crusade.

Training for Evangelism

We held our fifth National Evangelism Conference simultaneously with the Northern Baptist Ministers Conference at Green Lake, August 3-11. The two conferences, with the co-operation of the Council on Finance and Promotion, provided scholarships to care for entertainment expenses for over 50 low-income pastors (those receiving $2,200 a year salary or under). This year 50 directors of the Crusade for Christ through Evangelism met at Green Lake for three days' training, following the Northern Baptist Convention in Milwaukee. Our Secretary of Evangelism met these men again in November and December in four one-day Regional Conferences in Boston, New York, Chicago, and San Francisco.

United Evangelistic Advance

Over 25 national secretaries of evangelism have been meeting for prayer and conference frequently for two years looking forward to the turn of the half-century 1949-1950. They have worked out a plan for co-operative evangelism among the denominations, called United Evangelistic Advance.

Distribution of Evangelistic Literature

This has been the greatest year yet in distribution of evangelistic materials. Our Department of Evangelism has published and distributed 1,416,470 pieces of literature. In addition, the Crusade for Christ through Evangelism has published and distributed an even larger quantity of materials.

DEPARTMENT OF EDIFICE FUNDS AND BUILDING COUNSEL

During the fiscal year, 1948-1949, the Church Edifice Loan Funds of the Society have been unusually active. Fifty-six loans in the total amount of $341,843.96 have been made to churches in 19 states and in Cuba, Haiti, Mexico, and Puerto Rico. Fourteen appropriations in the sum of $8,000.00 have been made available to small struggling mission outposts here at home and in the several Latin-American countries where the Society is at work.

We have made an earnest effort to keep all loan accounts up to date. In this way, our limited edifice funds are kept revolving. During the year final payments have been made on 19 loan accounts. Eleven contingent mortgages and other equities have been satisfied. The total amount received on edifice loans of all kinds for the year is $108,124.36.

A member of the staff, without cost to this Society, has conducted ten fund-raising campaigns in local Northern Baptist churches by means of which cash and pledges totaling $517,000.00 have been procured for church building purposes. As a further financial service we continually counsel with Northern Baptist churches on wise procedures in church building finance.

Our edifice work has been possible because people, seeing the need, gave the Society funds with which to do this work. The funds have not come from the missionary gifts of the churches but almost entirely from special gifts by individuals. These funds, which began with only $5,678.33 in 1853, have taken the risks and performed the services incident to their ministry and now total $1,329,539.66.

Church Building Counsel

Church building counsel continues to make heavy demands upon the Society. Despite an average of 200 visits to local churches annually and a continuous volume of correspondence and literature sale, we have not been able to meet all the requests. Architects from Mexico City and Nicaragua have come to our office for conferences. Churches from Burma, the Philippines and mission stations in Alaska, Latin America, and our Indian Missions have sent their building problems to us for our help. We have prepared written reviews of several sets of plans for Christian Center buildings. Blueprints to the number of 73 have been prepared by our Consulting Architect and have been made available to churches requesting them for a nominal charge. The high cost of building continues to plague our churches and constantly challenges us to find more economical ways of construction, wiser ways of financing, and better use of limited facilities and resources. Too many of our churches do not carry adequate fire insurance. As a consequence, when a fire occurs, the local congregation is overtaken by a financial disaster.

The fact that we have so many small congregations in our Northern Baptist Convention has led us to give special attention to the building needs and the limited resources of these worthy churches. We have lately invited several architects to study anew the requirements of this special group.

Among the many pieces of literature produced recently, two have especially commended themselves to our church building leaders: One is The Church School and Parish House Building. The second publication, The Church Builder, by the Secretary of the Interdenominational Bureau of Architecture, deals with the general problems of church erection and finance.

DEPARTMENT OF LATIN AMERICA

Products of Latin America were needed in the recent war effort and it was important to keep the enemy from establishing ideological or military bases there. Promises were made at the Chapultepec and Rio conferences as to what would be done after the war so they could proceed with industrialization. Now, however, attention is being drawn to Europe and the menace of communism. Some of the promises are forgotten. For this and other reasons discontent mounts. It breaks forth sometimes in bloody riots as in Bogota, Colombia, and other times simply as seething unrest.

Central America

In December El Salvador was shaken by a brief revolution which overthrew a government that was in power in spite of the constitution. Order was quickly established under a provisional government. Except for temporary inconveniences missionary activities were not disturbed. In Santa Ana the church has been worshipping in an old structure which was vacated a number of years ago as being then unfit for use as a school. The church has been collecting funds and will probably begin work on its new structure during the year. This church supports its own ministry.

Dr. C. S. Detweiler has retired but he visited El Salvador, Nicaragua, and Mexico, and there conducted institutes for pastors and workers during the winter. He was assisted by Dr. P. H. Conrad, of the Council on Finance and Promotion, who gave stimulating and helpful lectures on stewardship. These men also visited the West Indian fields.

The First Baptist Church of Managua, the largest Baptist church in Central America, is about to construct its new edifice. A Nicaraguan architect and builder visited the United States and consulted with the building counselor of The American Baptist Home Mission Society and with architects in New York. The same architect is working on plans for the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society for a new hospital building in Managua.

Mexico

The new Mexican Baptist Seminary is in its third term. During vacations students do missionary work. Their evangelistic spirit is inspiring for they are ready to go where fanatical opposition constitutes a real danger. Mr. T. B. Clausen, chairman of the Board of The American Baptist Home Mission Society, went with Mrs. Clausen to Mexico early in the year. This visit was especially in the interest of the Latin-American Hospital in Puebla. The First Baptist Church of Monterrey observed its 85th anniversary on January 30, 1949. This was the first evangelical church in Mexico. This church has a splendid building, it has long been financially independent and it carries on a large missionary program. Recently five young men of the church received their medical degrees and three young women received other professional degrees.

West Indies

Fifty years ago, at the end of the Spanish-American War, Cuba and Puerto Rico were opened to evangelical missions. Missions in these countries celebrated their 50th anniversary in the late winter. For these celebrations Northern Baptist leaders visited the West Indies, including Dr. Sanford Fleming, President of the Northern Baptist Convention; Mrs. M. E. Wenger and Miss Helen Schmitz of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society; Dr. Richard Hoiland of the Board of Education and Publication; Dr. G. P. Beers and Mr. Wilbur Larson of The American Baptist Home Mission Society and Dr. C. S. Detweiler and Dr. P. H. Conrad. The celebration in Cuba centered in the annual Convention of Cuban Baptists, which met in the First Baptist Church of Santiago, the oldest and largest church in the mission.

Mr. Theodore Schupbach is completing his first year as director of our school in Cristo. He has given special attention to the development of the spiritual life of the school and faculty relationships. The result is a radiant spirit, both among pupils and faculty. Enrollment is high and the buildings and equipment have been improved.

Puerto Rico prepared for its Jubilee for a number of years. It came to its climax during the Convention at the Rio Piedras Church, the oldest Baptist church in Puerto Rico, March 8-12. A great interdenominational celebration was held on March 12 and 13. Speakers and other leaders were present from the United States and Latin-American countries. With the appointment of Rev. and Mrs. C. N. Stork, this mission will once more have a General Missionary. A Summer Service Project of the Baptist Youth Fellowship was in Puerto Rico. Here six young continentals worked and lived together with five young Puerto Ricans through the six weeks of the project. Among the significant results of this experience was the decision by one of the Puerto Rican young people and two of the continentals to enter missionary service.

The first missionary of the Society entered Haiti 25 years ago. There has been an amazing growth in the number of congregations and in their size. This growth is continuing and increasing. The new seminary at Limbe is making a good start to provide trained native leaders. The program of the first summer was much heavier than the program during the regular term. An institute was set up for leaders of country congregations and about 100 were present for a number of weeks of specialized studies. Youth assemblies were held also. A long-awaited event was the dedication of the beautiful new church edifice of the Baptist church in Port-au-Prince on March 6, 1949. Pasteur Ruben Marc continues his leadership there. With the facilities which this new building provides, he and his great church will be able to make a still stronger impact upon this capital city.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY TO SERVICE MEN

Because of the youthfulness of the men now in the armed services, some people in local communities have felt an increased concern to see that places for wholesome entertainment, worth-while recreation, and religious guidance and counseling are established. We have seven centers for ministry to service men: Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., Vallejo and San Diego, Calif., Las Vegas, Nev., Denver, Colo., and Newport, R. I. We are co-operating in a Christian ministry for college and university students in ten colleges and universities on an interdenominational basis. We also are assisting 37 university pastors and student workers to reach veteran students. We have approximately 130 chaplains on active duty in the various branches of the service. Responsibility for administering funds designated for conscientious objectors is lodged with us. A few men have received assistance toward education which was interrupted by their Civilian Public Service experience.

DISCOVERING MISSIONARY CANDIDATES

The Associated Home Mission Agencies of the Northern Baptist Convention established the Department of Personnel to meet the needs for qualified missionaries. This work is supported financially by the Board of Education and Publication, the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society, and The American Baptist Home Mission Society and is administered by the last-named Society. The Personnel Secretary visits schools and colleges, pastors' conferences, and seminaries, to enlist people for service. Missionary candidates are brought to the attention of the executives in response to specific requests and also by a periodical bulletin.

We correspond with young people who, during youth conventions, summer assemblies, or in their local churches, express an interest in missions or some type of Christian service and the desire to prepare for service. The file of such young people contains about 1,000 names. We urge them to secure full preparation and counsel them as to the courses of study they should take.

SUPPORT FOR HOME MISSIONS

Support for our missions comes from the World Mission budget of the Northern Baptist Convention and from income from invested funds. Eight dollars and 66 cents out of each $100 given to the unified budget is the portion of The American Baptist

Home Mission Society, and $4.86 is the portion of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society. In addition there are some designated and specific gifts. Investment funds have been given, and continue to be given, by friends of our work who make provision in their wills or in annuities or who make special gifts.

To help raise the World Mission budget of the Northern Baptist Convention, information about our mission work is published through many channels. Members of the staff and missionaries give time to deputation work in the churches, speaking before larger or smaller groups of people to tell the story of mission work. The staff has been especially active in Group Conversations with pastors and laymen, a project promoted by the Council on Finance and Promotion. News items and articles on missionary work have been supplied for periodicals, especially Missions, Baptist Leader, Crusader, State Convention and City Society bulletins, and Watchman-Examiner. Leaflet literature has been published and distributed. A booklet, The Story of Chung Mei, has been published in co-operation with the Chung Mei Home for Chinese boys in El Cerrito, Calif. Home Mission Digest No. 4 has been prepared for publication during the year, in order to have it ready for the Northern Baptist Convention meeting in San Francisco, in 1949. Advertisements have been placed in Missions and Watchman-Examiner, to promote annuities and giving to the unified budget. Much of the literature is produced co-operatively by the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society and The American Baptist Home Mission Society. Home Mission Digest is published by the Associated Home Mission Agencies. Home missions programs at the Northern Baptist Convention are also produced by this group of Baptist home mission agencies.

The various phases of evangelistic outreach of home missions represent the desire of Northern Baptist people to win to Christ as Lord and Saviour the peoples of the North American continent. In developing that evangelistic outreach we seek not only the financial support of Northern Baptist people, but also their prayers for our guidance and for the missionaries on the field.

CONCLUSION

Thus far God has led us on and surely he will lead us to the end. We seek only to discover his will and his way to bring it to pass. We give him our utmost gratitude for the privilege of serving him and for the extent to which he has honored our endeavors to serve him. We dedicate ourselves anew to his service and pray for his continued guidance and blessing.

REPORTS FROM THE FIELD WORKERS

(These are typical reports from among many reports.)

Crusade for Christ through Evangelism

We have conducted fifteen Ten Day Co-operative Crusades in Ohio. Rev. Clayton A. Pepper, Director of Town and Country Work, conducted six of them. Besides these Co-operative Crusades I have conducted two special Crusades in which we combined preaching and home visitation. These proved to be exceedingly fruitful. I conducted one visitation program on four consecutive nights with the First Baptist Church of Lima, where churches of the association had representatives at the conferences and conducted their own visitation at their convenience. I have directed one Crusade in Michigan, that in the Hillsdale-Coldwater area, and assisted in one other Michigan Crusade, that in the Battle Creek area. There I worked with both the youth program and the adult Crusade in the First Baptist Church. During the year in the execution of these programs I have traveled 19,374 miles.

Seventy-three churches have participated in these Ohio Crusades plus an indefinite number of churches other than Baptist. Of these there would be at least twenty-five. In the above listing of Crusades I did not make mention of the Cleveland Crusade where I assisted Dr. Archibald both in the six weeks' training conference and in the home visitation training conference, and addressed one breakfast conference.

During the year I have preached 74 times, have made 41 addresses, and have conducted 146 conferences.

—J. W. POORMAN,

Director of Crusade for Christ through Evangelism, Ohio

State Directors of Evangelism

Speaking in terms of Evangelism, 1948-1949 was a great year. The director was kept busy setting up Evangelistic Crusades in Associations and in answering requests of pastors for suggestions for Evangelistic help. We estimate that three hundred of our churches were touched helpfully by the Crusade. The director led five Associations in Evangelistic Crusades which resulted in 381 additions to the co-operating churches. Dr. Bruce Mills directed campaigns in the Logansport and Indianapolis areas with splendid results. The one at Logansport resulted in 548 decisions. The pastors co-operated splendidly and the State Crusade Committee was a large factor in what was accomplished.

The oldest Protestant church in the state, Silver Creek, which had been dormant for years came to life and services are being held every Sunday. In the same Association (Bethel) is the youngest church in the state, Clarksville, which began last July as a Sunday school and is now a flourishing church. New Washington church in the same Association, which is about two years old, dedicated a new meeting house June 12, 1949. The Mt. Aetna church, which had been dead for many years, came alive and has refurnished the old meeting house and will rededicate June 19th.

The director visited 61 churches; participated in three ordinations; dedicated two new parsonages; dedicated or rededicated 4 churches; attended national and State Conventions; 11 conferences of different kinds, including the Missions Conference of the First Baptist church of Hammond; an interdenominational conference at Taylor University; a Crusade Conference at Arcola, Ill.; and attended and spoke at 11 Association meetings.

—G. C. MITCHELL, Director of Evangelism, Indiana

DEPARTMENT OF LATIN AMERICA

Mexico

ORLANDO L. TIBBETTS, General Missionary

This has been a great year in the life of the Baptists of Mexico because of the progress that we have been able to note in spite of the existing difficulties that continually hamper the work of the evangelical churches in a Roman Catholic country. We are able to report that the churches are feeling their responsibility more and more and that national leadership is gradually being developed for the good of the work.

The Central Association

The new president of this Association in our field is Professor Cosme G. Montemayor, pastor and professor in our Baptist Seminary. Within this past year we have seen the organization of the First Baptist Church of Xochimilco, D. F., and the beginning of three building projects in the Federal District. In Puebla, our First Baptist Church has just about finished its new building and has called the Rev. Nemesis Rodriguez as its pastor. The First Baptist Church of Mexico City is building a magnificent building that will cost over one million pesos. Our Board has helped with this project but the local church itself is raising three-quarters of the total sum.

The Southeast Association

This is a new Association in the States of Oaxaca and Chiapas, and we have been able to help sponsor an Institute for lay workers and pastors that proved to be of great benefit to our churches. Miss Rena Button of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society was one of the teachers.

The Northeast Association

In the state of Tamaulipas the First Baptist Church of "18 de Marzo" was organized and several other churches in the same state are ready to be established with new church buildings as well. We have built a parsonage at the First Baptist Church of Reynosa and have acquired money to build chapels in San Fernando, Tamps, and Cervantes, Tamps. The Rev. Jesus Leal is the new pastor of the First Baptist Church of Monterrey, and the Rev. Adolfo Hernandez has changed from Matamoros to the First Baptist Church of Tampico.

The National Baptist Convention

The historic city of Monterrey with the First Baptist Church of all Mexico welcomed us to a great and inspiring convention. Visitors from the Southern Baptist Convention were present, and Miss Dorothy Bucklin of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society was a speaker at the Women's Meetings. Dr. Arnold Ohrn, from Washington, D. C., Executive Secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, was with us and with his fine messages helped us to have one of the finest conventions ever. The Rev. Jesus Leal, pastor of the host church, was elected as the new president. At the same time the Monterrey Church dedicated a new Hammond organ, which is the finest electric organ ever to be installed in one of our Baptist churches of Mexico.

Institutes and Visitors

We were honored this year with the presence of many pastors and workers from the United States. Among them were Rev. Lee Shane of West Virginia; Dr. Ralph Herring of North Carolina; Rev. Paul Collyer representing the American Bible Society; Rev. J. Sam Bailey, Director of Christian Education for Southern California; Mrs. Margaret Wenger, Executive Secretary of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society; Mr. Theodore Clausen, President of the Board of The American Baptist Home Mission Society; and the Rev. Samuel Nelson, who took part in our National Pastors Institute at the Quinta Don Carlos. Dr. Charles S. Detweiler and Dr. Paul Conrad also visited us and took part in an Institute for our pastors from the Central Mesa.

Camps for young people were held and Mrs. Feland Meadows was the director of the camp in the South, and the Rev. Porfirio Garcia, our Field Missionary, was director in the North. These assemblies have meant a great deal to our Baptist young people.

The Baptist Seminary of Mexico

We were able to send six students out to churches that are pastorless and the results have been most gratifying. The General Missionary visited all of them on their fields and saw their work firsthand.

This year the Seminary had nine regular students and two special students. All of these have been doing specialized field work with strict supervision.

This year we will have our first graduate, Enrique Castillejos, who will receive his Th.B. and become a pastor in one of our churches.

The Baptist Seminary is trying to pioneer in scholastic achievement as well, and has arranged to send Professor Donato Ramirez to Central Baptist Seminary in Kansas for a year of study. Professor Ramirez was recently honored with a D.D. from William Jewell College, his alma mater, and represented Mexico at the Northern Baptist Convention.

We have been very happy to have many retreats at our Seminary property and amongst them was one arranged with the Union Seminary of Mexico City. We have also been honored with the visit of Dr. Stanley Rycroft who directed a seminar with students and faculty.

Statistics

Churches, 48; Baptisms, 325; Mission stations, 145; Ordained pastors, 16; Unordained pastors, 13; Enrollment in seminaries, 20; Members in churches, 5,200; Total contributions, $48,000.

Cuba

REV. OSCAR RODRIGUEZ

Fiftieth Anniversary

The first day of September, 1898, saw the opening of our Mission in Eastern Cuba, when in Santiago de Cuba, Rev. J. R. O'Halloran started preaching the Gospel to a spiritually hungry people. Out of them came the first followers who soon were baptized and organized themselves as the First Baptist Church. Other missionaries followed, sowing the good seed of the Gospel until now. Among them were Teofilo Barocio, a member of the prominent Baptist Barocio family of Mexico; H. R. Moseley, D. A. Wilson, A. B. Howell, Robert Routledge, Wilbur Larson, and a host of other faithful missionaries, some of whom are still with us. These missionaries have served sacrificially in the two Provinces of Oriente and Camaguey to open missions and Sunday schools, and to establish churches.

At the great Annual Convention in February in Santiago de Cuba, the outstanding events of these last fifty years were reviewed and praises went up to our God in thanksgiving for the many blessings enjoyed and the great results achieved since the Cuban Mission started. A large delegation from all our churches crowded to overflowing the temple of our First Church in Santiago during five days of jubilee. With the slogan: "Onward with Christ Towards New Victories," the Convention eagerly faced the future with faith and expectation.

The Convention publicly recognized the help given to Cuba by the three great Societies that have done missionary work here. Certificates of recognition were presented to Dr. G. Pitt Beers, Mrs. Milo Wenger, and Dr. Richard Hoiland who represented their respective Societies, The American Baptist Home Mission Society, the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society and the American Baptist Publication Society. A similar certificate was presented to Dr. J. Gonzales Molina, Secretary of the American Bible Society for the Caribbean area. Honor was bestowed on Dr. Robert Routledge, by the Republic of Cuba in a public ceremony in Havana. He was given the highest honor of merit, the Medal of the grade of Official within the Order Carlos Manuel de Cespedes. Dr. Routledge, now retired, was for over twenty years General Missionary in Cuba and over thirty years Director of Colegios Internacionales. His visit to Cuba brought him warm expressions of love and admiration from friends everywhere. The Baptist Convention also honored him with a gold medal for his distinguished services as a Missionary in Eastern Cuba.

The Cuban Home Mission Society

For the last twenty-eight years the Cuban churches have made it their privilege to look after some of the needy rural regions, sending their own workers to open new fields and to establish and hold new churches. This Cuban Society now works in twenty-seven organized churches. These churches reported 156 baptisms this year. The budget for this work was $8,000, which represents 80 per cent of the unified budget of the Cuban Baptist Convention. Besides their share of the unified budget, these churches raised $8,464.22 for their pastoral support and other local expenses.

Haitian Work

The many thousands of Haitian people living in Cuba are responding to the preaching of the Gospel in large numbers. The Cuban Home Mission Society, under the leadership of Rev. Juan B. Carmona, has developed a program of evangelism to reach as many of these people as possible. There are already thirty-seven organized churches among the Haitians which are members of the Cuban Baptist Convention. All the promotion program of the General Convention reaches them. Last year a retreat for the Haitian Youth was organized and this summer two retreats will be held.

Evangelism

The Board of Evangelism of the Baptist Convention keeps the churches constantly at work to propagate the Gospel. The goal last year was for a minimum of 1,000 souls saved. While a little over half of the churches were able to carry out the plans for the evangelistic drive due to poor weather conditions, the number of conversions reported was 1,195 with many other consecrating their lives for Christian service. The number of baptisms reported for the year was 302. Hundreds of converts are now in training, many of whom will be ready for baptism during this year. The new goal is 1,500 new conversions and a minimum of 800 baptisms for this coming year.

Christian Stewardship

With the slogan: "Each member, a participating member," our churches are seeking to lead their members to realize that it is a duty as well as a privilege to support the church. Preaching and teaching, institutes on Christian stewardship, and courses of study in the youth retreats, are leading the churches into more regular support of the church. Dr. and Mrs. John C. Killian, of the United States, spent almost a month with us, and their help along the line of Christian stewardship will long be remembered. Dr. Killian, before his retirement, directed Colporter Missions of the American Baptist Publication Society.

Christian Education

Three youth retreats have been held in Cristo, Camaguey and a third one on a remote sugar plantation with over a hundred Haitian youth attending. Plans are well advanced for seven retreats this coming summer. Daily vacation church schools were another vital emphasis. Three institutes were held in preparation for these, and as a result fourteen schools were organized with the following results: enrollment 1,092, average attendance 998, number of teachers 109, number of new contacts for the church 413, number of new converts 198. Intermediate groups are being promoted in our churches to hold the future youth in the church. Prayerful consideration is being given to the needs of the young people, women, men and children.

Colegios Internacionales and the Day Schools

Our great educational institution has been Colegios Internacionales in El Cristo. This school has had one of the most successful years in its history. Under the strong leadership of Rev. T. H. Schubach, the new President of the institution, the school continues its march as one of the vital agencies for Christian influence. Fifteen other schools function in connection with our churches, three of which are of high school level. Unlike Colegios Internacionales, these others are day schools functioning as departments of the local churches. The Christian teacher is coming to be recognized as a missionary.

Visitors

Baptists in Eastern Cuba had not seen in recent years as many visitors from the various Societies as we had with us this last year. It was a blessing to us to welcome Dr. G. Pitt Beers, Dr. Sandford Fleming, Dr. Charles S. Detweiler, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Killian, Dr. William G. Coltman, Dr. Richard Hoiland, Dr. W. Stanley Rycroft, Dr. Paul H. Conrad, Rev. Wilbur Larson, Mrs. Milo Wenger, Miss Helen Schmitz, Miss Dorothy Stevens and Miss Florence Stansbury. Mr. Edmund Shaw, of New York, and Dr. Gonzalo Baez Camargo, of Mexico, were also visitors to our field, specializing in visual aids and religious literature respectively.

Some of Our Needs

We need an increased number of trained pastors and missionaries. The field becomes larger as the influence of our churches reaches into the outlying districts. Constant demands come to us for prepared leaders. Many outstations have grown to the size of well-organized missions. These are looking forward to being organized as churches. We also need a seminary to train our future ministers. A committee has been working on ways and means for getting a seminary organized this year. We have students waiting for the opening of the seminary, and we have the voluntary offer of some experienced teachers. But we need the suitable quarters for the seminary. We need two more general workers, one to promote evangelism and stewardship, and the other to lead in Christian education and publications.

Statistics

Number of Cuban churches, 78 with 4,081 members; number of Haitian churches, 37 with 900 members. Total membership, 4,981. Number of baptisms reported, 302; number of Sunday schools, 430 with an enrollment of 12,933 and an average attendance of 9,618. Number of preaching stations, 235; number of organized missions, 146. Contributed for Home Missions, $10,000; contributed for local support, $55,771.34, making a total of $65,771.34. Personnel: 30 ordained ministers, 23 unordained pastors, 5 women missionaries. Students for the ministry, 8.

Educational work: Number of schools, 16. High school enrollment, 295; elementary school enrollment, 1,882; total enrollment, 2,177. Number of teachers, 117.

El Salvador

REV. JOHN G. TODD

The Workers

El Salvador Baptists, in spite of limited advantages and background for producing workers, possess a number of excellent workers. Among them are several pulpit orators, whose messages are strong. We take pride in mentioning Sr. Miguel Angel Blanco, pastor in San Salvador, and Sr. Juan Rodriguez Nunez, pastor in Santa Ana. These men are widely called for outside of their churches. Neither of them is ordained. Their churches are the most aggressive in the country, both independent in pastoral support. Another outstanding preacher is Rev. Gonzalo Regalado, much called for as an evangelist, who forgets self in fiery passion to get people converted to Christ. He has been some twenty-five years in the work. Longest in service, some thirty-two years, is Rev. Cirilo Gaspar, whose unrepachable Christian character has been put to the test perhaps more severely than that of any other man; a highly respected leader. Another singular man is Jose Bran, working among those of his own race, the Pipils. There never will be another Jose Bran for the Indians of El Salvador. Even though he is advanced in years, his foot travel would kill the unaccustomed person. He is an active, knowing, aggressive, capable teacher, a worker who brings results. He is now successfully reopening a district in the far-away Indian pueblo, Tacuba. Other outstanding men will be referred to here later.

The above mentioned Sr. Blanco was the first student to return, a year ago, from the Baptist Seminary in Nicaragua, bringing his new wife, who has become a useful person in the church. Our second student in the same institution, Sr. Carlos A. Figueroa, has just returned after three years of study, bringing a promising Nicaraguan bride to share his enthusiasm, and to help in music where they are now settling, in the low lying, warm and musically starved town of Usulután.

The Churches

The Santa Ana congregation is building a new meeting house. With fiery speed, with the Mission's help, and the application of their Fondo de Ramos (Branch Fund) the new temple is going up. Thirty-two years ago, as Palm Sunday drew near, members were invited to bring "palm branches" to honor the Saviour. These took the form of offerings to build a larger church. Thus the Branch Fund was started, and has been added to during the years.

Our more advanced churches show that they do not need the foreign missionary in the same way as in years gone by. Their activities are spontaneous and their leaders are capable. Recently, for the first time in years, the writer was present in a meeting of the Sunday School Council of the San Salvador church school, and listened to sixteen experienced workers discuss how to secure more efficient co-operation of their forces and improvement in the program of their departmentally organized Bible school. One could not escape an impression of the strength and initiative shown.

Institute work by the missionaries has continued, as well as Daily Vacation Bible School work by Miss Mary Mills of the Woman's Society. Jiquilisco had an almost disappearing Baptist church. They had built an attractive chapel. A prominent member, who had probably put up about all the money, built it according to his own ideas. Seeing the writer on a train, he said, "Guess we shall have to sell the chapel." As soon as Prudencio Rodriguez, one of the institute boys, has finished his studies, which ran for three months with nine boys and one girl, he voluntarily went to work at Jiquilisco. Four were recently baptized. Jiquilisco is a large town, a center for commerce and sports, on the International Railroad. There is no other important work for the Kingdom carried on there.

The coming of Sr. Figueroa to Usulután permits Sr. Regalado, mentioned above, to be relieved of a climate which it was feared was killing his wife, and gives to Santiago de Maria, one of the most important business towns in the east, an alert evangelistic voice, where no strong Christian testimony has been heard for years. Sr. Regalado is settled as pastor of the little church.

The Guatajiagua church has come forward in a remarkable way. Two circumstances may be presumed to be back of this. One of the most impressive church buildings in the Republic, rebuilt not long ago, is in use. A new building, offered opportunity for new life, and new prestige. The second reason is their active and devoted pastor, Sr. Venancio Rodriguez, a result-bringer in his former pastorate at Ozatlan. This is one of our most primitive towns, and most difficult of access.

Ozatlan Church is about to dedicate its second building, splendidly spacious. Practically no financial aid for their property has ever been given to the church in this small town near Usulután.

Ahuachapan, for many years served by Rev. Juan J. Cerna, whose good wife is the only national woman missionary graduate in El Salvador, has been gaining ground during several years.

Here is an extreme western metropolis, a center of wealth where rich and poor, Ladino and Pipil, meet. Sonsonate, forty miles east of Ahuachapan, near the coast, in the same Indian district, with a church where possibly more pastors have been discouraged than in any other field, rejoices in the smiling young musical shepherd Sr. Neftali Valiente, not yet a year under Mission support, but who served the church faithfully with practically no remuneration for about two years previously. Sonsonate now has life.

Chalchuapa, blighted under a former leader, prospers with the intelligent and aggressive ministrations of Sr. J. Ernesto Mezquita. He has been called to help the Santa Ana Baptist College, seven miles distant, where he goes twice a week as Bible teacher.

Miguel Mejia is a vigorous and untiring worker, in charge of the one Indian church at Nahuizalco. He is a Ladino, and there are Ladino members. Mejia seems to know every inch of his immense district, over which he tramps in continual gospel aggression. Other good workers, each in his own way, are Sr. Castro, Sr. Ascenio, Sr. Erazo, and Sr. Tenorio of whom we are proud, and dear old Sr. Bonilla, retired, but willing, stands by at La Union.

Haiti

REV. C. S. KELLY

The outstanding event of the year has been the visit of the delegation of Northern Baptist Convention officers which coincided with the dedication of the fine new Church building in Port-au-Prince. It was an honor for us to have a visit from the Convention President, Dr. Sanford Fleming, and it was an inspiration to listen to his messages, and to those of the other visitors, each of whom had a valuable contribution to make to the work in Haiti.

We all rejoice with Pastor Ruben Marc in the completion and dedication of the new church. We are proud to have such a Baptist church in the capital. In connection with this, and with the general progress of his work, Pastor Marc writes as follows:

"Again we thank God for another year of advance in our field of labour. There has been a fine spirit of unity and co-operation in the church. A strong spirit of Evangelism has resulted in a continuous growth of the congregation, and a weekly registration of decisions for Christ. That same spirit has caused groups ranging anywhere from twenty men and women to two hundred, to leave the city every Sunday of the month except the first, and go out preaching, witnessing for Christ, and visiting some of the outstations, thereby strengthening them. Returning from one of those visits last summer, one large group fell victim of a bus accident which caused painful wounds to many and broke the limbs of several fine young men. That mishap did not, however, quench the zeal of anyone. As a result of that evangelistic movement, we had the joy of baptizing 161 candidates.

"The young people of the church who about two years ago had organized themselves into an association for the development of their spiritual and social life, have shown an increasing interest in the life and work of the church.

"In spite of increasing financial difficulties due to the general economic condition of the country and, for a large section of our people, due to the fact that their houses and shops, which were near the seashore, have been demolished by the government in order to make space for the grounds of the World Fair, the level of giving has not gone down as we had feared. $2,311.07 were raised and $1,670.60 more have been contributed to the building fund.

"Two new chapels have been undertaken in some of the more recently opened outstations, and are near completion.

"The best of all has been the dedication of our new church building on March 6th. The service, which was attended by more than 2,000 people including some of the highest government officials, was greatly enhanced by the presence of an imposing delegation of American Baptists headed by Dr. Sanford Fleming. The challenging sermon preached by Dr. G. Pitt Beers on that occasion was repeated by me on the following Sunday morning for the sake of the many who had not been able to get into the building at dedication time, and was the means of bringing home to one of our finest young men the call of God to give himself to the Christian ministry and become a 'builder.'"

Each of the other pastors has a similar story to tell of a year of blessing, progress, and achievement in all fields.

In October, 1948, Mr. and Mrs. A. Groves Wood celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their arrival in Haiti, under The American Baptist Home Mission Society. Most of the pastors of the Mission were present at special services held in the Cape Church, of which Mr. Wood is pastor, to share in this day of rejoicing and to offer their thanks and congratulations to the Woods for their devoted service to Christ in Haiti.

Evangelism

As the great drive of the Crusade for Christ through Evangelism has been going ahead in the Northern Baptist Convention churches, there has been an emphasis on evangelism on our field. Every church reports a large number of converts, and the number received into membership through baptism exceeds two thousand. Special mention might be made of Grande Saline. This town at the mouth of the Artibonite River, between St. Marc and Gonaives, had for long been neglected, and there was no established evangelical work. Recently an evangelist, supported by the Christian Endeavor in the Cape, was sent there, and after a few weeks only, there have been many converts and the beginning of a promising work.

Education

The work of over twenty primary schools has been maintained throughout the year, and the number of children registered in these schools is almost two thousand. A good Christian high school for boys is still one of our great needs.

Seminary

There are now four regular students in the Seminary, and two others have come in for certain courses. A high standard is being maintained and good progress reported. The scope of the Seminary's activities goes far beyond the training of four theological students. During the summer we held Bible Institutes. One lasting three weeks for Preachers was attended by nearly eighty men. This was followed by a week's camp for girls, and one for boys, each of which was attended by about fifty. Thanks to World Mission Crusade Funds we have started work on new building projects at the Seminary: A new faculty residence, a large dormitory and a chapel.

Pastors' Conference

The Annual Conference of Pastors was held at the Seminary in June. All except one of our Pastors were present. A growing spirit of fellowship and co-operation was manifested. At this meeting it was decided to devote our annual missionary offering to support a second pastor for the work at La Romana in the Republic of Santo Domingo. For nearly twenty years Pastor Leonzac Salvant has worked alone among the Haitians in this neighboring country, and has built up a work of two thousand members. Augustin Felix has been chosen to go and his support will come from the Haitian churches.

New Work

There are in Haiti many independent Baptist churches which have not been in fellowship with any mission, or with the great body of Baptist witness in the country. Two of these groups, at Miragoane, and Grande Goave, with a membership of eight hundred, have been affiliated with us during this year. In writing to apply for affiliation one pastor wrote, "When we decided to seek affiliation with a foreign Society, the question was to decide which Mission was the most serious. Only the Home Mission Society deserves that name."

New Buildings

Reference has already been made to the achievement of the Port-au-Prince Church in the completion of their new building, and also to the new constructions at the Seminary. The rapid growth of the work and the poverty of the people always presents a problem as to how to meet the cost of building large enough to accommodate the growing congregations. The Haitian churches are grateful for help received from the Home Mission Society in loans and grants for building projects. A loan of $6,000 granted to the church at Limbe will enable them to go far toward completing their large new church building which is urgently needed. During the year progress has been made on building at Hinche, Maissade, Pilate, St. Michel, Ste. Suzanne, Paulette, Plaine du Nord, and Acul. Many other churches are preparing materials and hope to start building in the near future. The congregation in the Cape has outgrown their chapel and urgently need a new building. The present high cost of labor and materials make it necessary for them to have at least $15,000 on hand before beginning such a project and they are far short of this sum. Many country stations have been hard at work building little chapels or putting permanent roofs on those that had previously been covered with thatch.

We thank God for a year of progress and look forward with confidence to the future.

Statistics

Number of churches, 46; members, 15,822; outstations, 160; Sunday school scholars, 5,000; baptisms, 2,009; elementary schools, 26; enrollment in elementary schools, 2,000; offerings, $14,408.00.

Nicaragua

ROBERT W. DIXON

New Fields

1. Diriomo. During the past year we have been able to establish the work better in this interesting field. One of our Colporters spent six months here, and later one of our recent seminary graduates became the resident worker on the field. A group of sixteen was baptized. A day school has been established and services are held in six outlying stations.

2. Ocotal. Late in 1948 we were able to send a worker and his family to open work in this important center in the North. As the town has been considered very fanatical, his assignment was to make friends and gain the confidence of the people. This he has been able to do, and the time seems right for a more aggressive effort. Many sympathizers have been found. A special interest has been awakened in our little circulating library established there. There have been many readers of the few books available.

3. Gethsemani. Early in the year the Gethsemani mission of the Managua Church was organized as the second church in the capital city. With its organization this congregation has entered upon a new period of activity, and has set a very fine record of growth and interest. It has led all of our churches in per-capita giving this year. Agustin Ruiz, one of our first seminary graduates, is pastor of this church.

Seminary

This year we graduated one young man from our Seminary. Carlos Figueroa studied with us two years when the Seminary was in El Salvador, and then when the Seminary was moved to Nicaragua he continued studies in our Baptist school in Santa Ana. Later he came here to finish his Seminary work. After three years of study here, he is returning with his bride to his native land to be pastor of the church in Usulután.

During the school years we had two students in the first year class, and seven boys doing preparatory work with a view to entering the Seminary. We have a large number of applications for the new school year, but it is difficult to find students who present the proper qualifications for the ministry. This is our greatest need and we ask for your prayers that God may raise up consecrated young men.

An institute for young women was held in the Seminary in October and November with Miss Mary Butler taking the largest part of the direction. We feel that it was a very profitable effort, and one worth continuing.

The Seminary moved to the farm while the girls occupied the buildings in town. We hope that in the new school year we can definitely make the move to our permanent location, but the present facilities are very limited.

Institute

One workers' Institute was held in February on the occasion of the visit of Dr. Charles S. Detweiler and Dr. Paul H. Conrad. This institute was of great spiritual blessing to the pastors. Both men were greatly beloved by the people. With regret we held a farewell service for Dr. Detweiler as this will probably be his last visit to Nicaragua. He is highly esteemed for his many years of faithful service and leadership in our work.

Evangelism

Beside local efforts, we were able to conduct intensive campaigns in three of the northern fields and in the extreme eastern part of the Republic. Great interest followed these meetings.

Financial

This has been a hard year for the people financially. The coffee crop was a failure and as this is the chief agricultural export it has affected the entire economy of the country. There is a great deal of unemployment. Nevertheless the churches have done well in their giving. Almost all of the churches have at least maintained their level of pastoral support, and a number have been giving liberally to building funds. The convention was able to keep its work going but usually with an empty treasury at the end of each month.

Bilingual Churches

The missionary effort among Americans of different national backgrounds continues to be a challenging undertaking. Our fellow Baptists from many lands feel more and more at home alongside their brethren of the old American stock. Under the impact of the gospel of Jesus Christ there is also a deepening sense of Christian kinship among the various bilingual Baptist groups within the Northern Baptist Convention. The pastors of the Polish Baptist churches are not nearly the strangers to their Roumanian fellow believers they once were. As the years come and go the Hungarian Baptist leaders are more and more aware of the hopes and aspirations of the Czechoslovak Baptist pastors for their people.

Much of this Christian fellowship originates in the Bilingual Baptist Ministers' Conference held annually under the leadership and guidance of the Department of Cities of The American Baptist Home Mission Society. In the last such gathering, November 4 and 5, 1948, in Cleveland, Ohio, there were fifty-six pastors present representing fourteen national groups.

The American Baptist Home Mission Society shares, through its Department of Cities, in the salaries of approximately 110 pastors and missionaries working among the bilingual people in the territory of the Northern Baptist Convention. Many churches thus aided in the past have become self-sustaining and others are rapidly reaching self-support. In addition to the problems growing out of the language transition, the bilingual churches are now confronted with the difficulties caused by the shifting of population. Hundreds of families are leaving their home churches in the northeastern industrial areas where they served as officers, Sunday school teachers and youth leaders in their congregations, to swell membership rolls in the Baptist churches in the western states.

It was the privilege of this representative of The American Baptist Home Mission Society, serving through its Department of Cities, to live and to work, to counsel and to pray with the pastors, to take part in the planning for the programs of the conferences, to conduct the evangelistic meetings and to aid in some measure toward adjustments in this field of constant change and transition.

Out of the twelve months ending April 30, 1949, it was my privilege to devote, in addition to the individual calls, personal and group conferences and two series of evangelistic meetings, one month to deputation and Summer Assembly work under the Council on Finance and Promotion, and six months as Acting Director of Missions of the state of Arizona.

EDWARD CATLOS

Baptist Work among the Chinese on the Pacific Coast

Since this writer first came to live and to work among the Chinese in the United States, more than thirty years ago, notable changes and significant developments have taken place in the social, economic and religious life of the Chinese communities. These changes and developments have in many respects altered appreciably the complexion of the work carried on by the numerous religious and philanthropic groups.

Today a very large proportion of the Chinese living in our midst are American-born who, while still deeply interested in and closely tied to the land of their forefathers, are more and more coming to regard themselves as Americans, and to think of the United States as home. While a notable gulf between the old-timers and the younger generation still exists, it is much less than formerly. Moreover, this rapidly increasing population of American-born no longer feels so much the need, nor has it so much the desire, to huddle within the protecting arms of "Chinatowns." On the contrary these Americans of Chinese ancestry enjoy an ever-growing sense of being an integral part of the social, economic and religious life of the nation, and are eager to take their rightful place in the American scene.

These trends have been markedly noticeable in the atmosphere, and decidedly obvious in the activities, of most of the Chinese churches and missions in the United States, where exclusiveness, conservatism and the spirit of "laissez faire" are giving way rapidly to a spirit of progress, cosmopolitanism and even world citizenship. It is perhaps largely because of these metamorphoses that our Baptist work among the Chinese presents an encouraging and inspiring picture today.

Never in all the seventy years of its interesting and dramatic history has our Chinese work in the "City by the Golden Gate" been more flourishing, inspiring and satisfying. Building upon the foundation laid by the Rev. Albert Lau, and with the faithful co-operation of missionary Celia Allen, the Rev. Arthur Smith has during the past two years rendered an outstanding ministry. Not only has the church grown substantially in membership and in its outreach, but through his leadership classes, teaching program and personal interviews Arthur Smith has been remarkably successful in training a consecrated and educated lay leadership. Recently there has arrived from China a Chinese-speaking minister, the Rev. F. C. Chiu, who will be associated with Arthur Smith in this inspiring work.

Financially, things have never been brighter in this church. Chinese-American youth have caught the joy of Christian giving, and are contributing regularly through the recognized envelope system, tithing being the minimum standard held before them.

Spiritual growth is even more satisfying, and is manifested in deeper Christian living, and in a virile spirit of evangelism. Four young people have recently dedicated their lives to full-time Christian service. One is already attending the Berkeley Baptist Divinity School, and one will enter in the fall. The other two are still in high school.

In Oakland, Calif., under the sponsorship of Mrs. A. E. Caldwell and the First Baptist Church, there are two notable organizations known respectively as the Oakland Chinese Mothers' Club and the Pui Yin Club. The former is composed of the older Chinese women, and has recently celebrated its twenty-third birthday. The latter came into existence five years ago, and is a club of the younger married women. Both meet monthly for mutual Christian edification and social enjoyment, and both are definitely devoted to good works. When the present Chung Mei Home was built in 1935 the Mothers' Club contributed the sum of $1,336 and has since by numerous gifts and services shown its devotion to that haven for Chinese boys. The Pui Yin Club has also made contributions to Chung Mei, to the work of Dr. Velva Brown in China, to the Kodiak Home, and to the building fund of the First Baptist Church. Both clubs give continually to China relief, to Chinese orphanages and to the White Cross work of our denomination.

In Sacramento, Calif., Chinese work is housed in the Lincoln Christian Center, and is under the personal direction of Dr. John Hestenes, with Miss Eleanor Crone as missionary. During the past year the work has shown a steady increase. Recently two young people were baptized, and another group is being prepared for baptism. A Youth Fellowship Group has been organized and is functioning actively.

At Locke, Calif., the work at the Christian Center, under the direction of Mary Beth Dixon, with the part-time assistance of Eleanor Crone, is thriving as never before in its history. The place is a beehive of activity, and it is inspiring indeed to witness the way in which the young adults, baptized years ago in their teens, are now shouldering their responsibilities. A church has been organized, most of the officers being fruits of the efforts of earlier missionaries. Recently thirteen new members were added by baptism.

The Christian Center and church at Fresno, Calif. are at present without a pastor, but are looking forward to welcoming one in the near future. In the meantime the work is being efficiently directed by Miss Lorna M. Holme. Attendance at church school is good, at worship service it is even better. Weekdays are busy with a schedule full of such activities as a woman's missionary society, youth groups, a college and business girls' missionary organization, English classes for Chinese-American G.I. wives, nursery school, choir, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies. More and more the church is becoming better organized, and the members themselves are eagerly assuming responsibilities.

The work in Portland, Ore., for many years so efficiently directed by the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Backlund, is now under the faithful shepherding of Rev. Stanley Peach, who is at the same time completing his education and preparation for missionary work in China. Activities consist of worship services, church school, prayer service, youth groups, and boys' and girls' clubs for Bible study and missionary education.

Construction is in progress on a beautiful new church home at a location away from old Chinatown, but in the center of one of the rapidly growing new Chinese communities. It will cost about $40,000, a large part of which is being provided by congregational gifts and tithing.

The Chung Mei Home for Chinese Boys, El Cerrito, Calif., recently completed a quarter century of service. During those twenty-five years it has grown from a mere handful of little Chinese boys, ranging in age from six to twelve, housed in a gaunt frame structure on the flats of southwest Berkeley, to its present large family of seventy-seven hale and hearty youngsters from five to eighteen years of age, who live happily and enthusiastically in their roomy and attractive edifice situated amid beautiful grounds on the hillside at El Cerrito.

Since the day of its founding Chung Mei has given refuge, home care and training in Christian citizenship to over six hundred Chinese lads—orphans, half-orphans, boys from broken and unfit homes, maladjusted boys, and those in need of firm but loving guidance. The majority of these have gone out into the world and are giving good account of themselves.

Chung Mei was established as a Christian institution, and such it has ever remained. Life in the home is by no means puritan, but it is genuinely, healthily, stalwartly Christian. Social activities, fun, hilarity—and sometimes a bit of nonsense—have a part in the lives of the boys, as they must have in the lives of all normal youngsters; but the standard of living at Chung Mei, and the rule of faith and practice is Christian and evangelical. Boys entering the home find that the Christian religion is not only taught, but is practiced as the norm of a successful and happy life. The natural result is that in due time almost every Chung Mei boy, if he stays long enough, or is old enough intelligently to take the step, makes a profession of faith in Christ, and follows him in baptism. On a recent Sunday eighteen boys from Chung Mei took this step in an impressive service at the First Baptist Church of Berkeley.

CHARLES R. SHEPHERD

Juvenile Protection Program

By responding as quickly as time and itinerary permit to the requests for field service (which usually come in on the Reply-Cards sent out in connection with Juvenile Protection Sunday observance), we are able to render a vital service to the local pastor and to his field at the time when the need is felt to be the greatest. One day is usually spent with each pastor, observing his needs, listening to his plans and making detailed arrangements for the coming of one of our staff members to stay on his field for a period of time. The staff member usually conducts a survey of juvenile conditions in the local community; he also surveys the various community agency services to youth; finally he appraises the present youth program of the local church. Then he makes a detailed report of his findings along with specific recommendations to the local church (or churches) for more adequately meeting the youth needs. Our staff-member is then available to each local church to aid in setting up plans and organization for carrying through the recommendations. Marked gains in the local ministry to the youth of the community have been noted in many instances where this service has been rendered.

Surveys have been conducted by staff members at Richwood, W. Va., Peoria, Ill., West Allis, Wis., Wichita and Salina, Kans., Loveland and Greeley, Colo., Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y., and Lansing, Mich. Recreation Laboratory Schools were conducted at Green Lake, Wis., and Block Island, R. I. Another service to the local church has been initiated by the Leadership Training School held in Buffalo, N. Y. March 21-25. The curriculum included courses in the leadership of games, crafts and songs. The annual Junior Citizens' Camp was in July at Camp Okalona, Wolcottville, Ind. Other activities by Staff members have included the setting up of Area Junior Citizens Camps in Northern California at Camp Pinecroft and at Springbrook Camp, Guthrie Center, Iowa, for the summer of 1949.

We have had an increasing demand for our literature from the churches; especially noteworthy is the amount of literature supplied to other denominations. College and seminary students are also increasingly interested in Juvenile Protection as evidenced by their inquiries and requests for materials.

Our relationship as a part of the Department of Cities of The American Baptist Home Mission Society has greatly increased our effectiveness. Through frequent conference and the services of the secretarial staff of the department, strength and impetus have been given to the Program.

CLIFFORD G. HANSEN

DEPARTMENT OF RURAL AND INDIAN MISSIONS

Wichita and Kiowa Fields

The evangelistic effort this past year has been that of the Indian assistant pastors. Results are not big; but the eight whom I baptized represented their effort, and that is important to this work. These men have been loyal in their efforts to help their little churches. They have met with opposition of every sort.

An every-member canvass was made at the Elk Creek Mission. Each family was asked to pay 10 per cent of its pecan crop, in addition to past gifts and the usual gift to the church. This resulted in a substantial increase in giving.

The marriage of Claudia, daughter of Mrs. Winnie Little Man to Corporal Robert Erny was a high light. It was our first church wedding from among our Indian young people. It was a family affair of much significance. It was doubly significant because all too many of our youth are entering this relationship by common consent. The parents of the bride are both teachers at Red Stone Mission.

Another successful effort was made on the Wichita Church Farm project. A good hay crop was harvested. With the money from the sale of this hay and pledges that had been paid, three head of livestock were placed on the project. Six new fruit trees have been set out as an investment in the property.

The problem of helping the assistant pastors to cope with the cost of living has brought some response. The original plan of these men finding work in the local community has not gotten far. One, James Two Hatchett, was already established on a farm; another, Allen Moses, has had work in another city and is not free for his work every Sunday. A third, Yale Spotted Bird, has sold some property and is not in need at present; the fourth, Duke Tsoodle, has had some real problems. Seasonal labor is the only work available. A gesture of help was made this month for the Tsoodles when five families of the church promised to give one dollar each a month to their assistant pastor. This will mean a sacrifice on the part of three of these families. The fifth, Sherman Chaddlesone, has been assisting all of the Kiowa pastors.

REV. E. LESTER RANEY, Anadarko, Okla.

Cheyenne-Arapahoe Field

Our primary interest is in the evangelization of the Indian people. During the past year there were nine baptisms in the two churches, Greenfield and Swappingback. In addition there were six baptisms from the Concho Indian School.

There has been a step toward self-government in the two churches. The Greenfield church gave financial help to seven young people for the Youth Assembly. One of the young people who attended the assembly was elected to the office of the superintendent of the Sunday school. Another girl who received help from the church accepted Christ at the close of the assembly. She has accepted the responsibility of teaching a class of preschool children in the church. Eighty-five per cent of the Indian families attend the church services regularly at Swapping Back church. Although the financial report indicates no progress in giving at Swapping Back church the work given by the men and women has been good. At the present time we are in the midst of painting the church.

REV. WILKIN T. WILLIS, Geary, Okla.

Tahoe Indian Parish

At Reno Indian Colony Baptist Church there was a series of evangelistic meetings when several youth accepted Christ Jesus. Religious moving pictures monthly, and other modern visual aids have supplemented the weekly teaching class schedule. The deacon has served well in conducting services during the absence of the missionary.

The Washoe Baptist Church, at Dresslerville, has a released-time Christian teaching program in co-operation with the public school that enables us to reach all the children in the community weekly.

The Stewart Indian Mission serves the Protestant pupils in the boarding school—about 400, including 150 Navajos, who have a special program to meet their needs. An up-to-date visual aid program is in force, and alcohol education is a prominent part of the attempt to solve current problems. A class on Establishing a Christian home was well received. There are twenty-five in the discipleship class preparing for church membership after baptism.

Total parish benevolent gifts amounted to $250.00 and the Total number of persons reached weekly is 700.

REV. GEORGE W. SMART, Stewart, Nev.

Sunlight Mission to Hopis

Vacation school time came and we enrolled 134 children from the villages, Mishongnovi, Shipaulovi, and Shungopovy, for an eventful two weeks of worship, work, and play.

After harvest, the sewing classes resumed with a total of 101 women and the Saturday morning children's classes steadily increased its enrollment up to eighty-nine boys and girls up to Christmas time.

During special evangelistic service in November, three reconsecrated their lives to Christ (one restored to the fellowship of the church). At Easter time another joined the church upon confession of faith and baptism. There are a number of young people who are interested in the Christian way.

The Missionary Offering given by the Second Mesa Hopi Baptist Church for the year past was $99.19 including one Share of Success.

REV. J. WALKER RAYMOND, Second Mesa, Ariz.

Yavapai-Apache

Six of our young people were baptized on Easter Sunday and many came for reconsecration. During the last week in August, Luke Johnson, a Pima Baptist Indian, led us in our camp meeting. One was baptized at the close of that meeting. During Thanksgiving week Rev. Harold Lucas, missionary in Arizona, led us in our special meetings at Clarkdale. One young man was baptized and the whole church was strengthened spiritually.

We have built a church at Camp Verde on the Reservation. The men worked faithfully donating their time to this project. Seventy were present in the church on Christmas Day for the services. Attendance and interest have increased since the building was erected. New families are being reached and one girl gave her heart to Christ on Christmas Day. This building also means an extra Sunday night service for us and the development of more lay leaders. Our men and women take care of the services every other Sunday night at all three stations. Dell Quail, Tom Smith, and John Kinsey are our three leaders in this work.

Colporter Missionary to Small Churches 302

In two years of building upon thirty years of groundwork the following resulted: a new parsonage was built, a resident worker was employed, an enlarged ministry was provided for one of the two home mission stations, missionary giving increased ninety per cent; the income of the church increased fifty per cent, and the church and parsonage were modernized and redecorated, with all bills paid. Three of the four co-operating churches in the field came together for a union baptismal service when eleven were baptized as a witness to the spiritual harvest. The thirty years of effort here was climaxed by more than thirty additions to the church, mostly by baptism of adults and youths.

REV. HOWARD PARRY, Lodge Grass and Wyola, Mont.

Colporter Mission to Russians

I have had the joy of seeing several first decisions for Christ and have had the thrill of baptizing eighteen people. One family that I had the joy of baptizing—father, mother, and two daughters—went a second step and planted twenty acres of flax for Missions. This flax was sold for $504.00. They received such a blessing from this that they are planning to do a similar work this coming year. Another family started to read their Bible every day. There are five children in this home, and two weeks ago the youngest girl made a first decision for Christ. Now everyone in the family is a Christian and the two oldest children have been baptized. There are several other prospects for baptism as soon as the weather permits. The Russian people are still going to the lake for their baptismal services. Pray with us that the Lord will give us a large number of new converts.

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY,
NEW YORK, N. Y.

We have examined the financial statements of THE AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY as of April 30, 1949. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The investments in bonds, stocks, mortgages and real estate are carried in the annexed balance sheet at cost or amounts assigned thereto at date of gift to the Society. The market value of bonds and stocks based upon market quotations at April 30, 1949, is shown on an accompanying schedule. The market values of mortgages, mortgage certificates, real estate bonds, real estate and other investments are not readily ascertainable. The collectibility of the outstanding loans to churches is not readily determinable; the amounts at which school and mission properties are carried include $131,811.46 for capital expenditures on properties in Mexico for which the Society cannot hold legal title.

The Society owns or has equities in certain Christian centers, schools and missions. Except for investments in physical properties, the accounts of the Society and the annexed financial statements do not include such other assets and such liabilities as these institutions may have. We did not examine the accounts or records of these institutions.

In our opinion, based upon such examination and subject to the foregoing comments, the accompanying balance sheet and related statements of income, expenditures, surplus and changes in funds (pages 4 to 14 and 26 to 30, inclusive) set forth the position of the Society at April 30, 1949, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

NOTE. Article IV, Section 45 of the Insurance Law of the State of New York requires the segregation of annuity fund assets as separate and distinct from all other funds of the Society, which funds are not applicable to the payment of debts of the Society other than annuity benefits, together with the maintenance of prescribed minimum reserves for annuity contracts. The annual report on the form prescribed by the Insurance Department has been filed for the year ended December 31, 1948. The calculation of the reserve requirement at December 31, 1948, was certified to the Insurance Department by officers of the Board and indicated that the assets of the annuity fund were adequate to meet the reserve requirements at that date. No determination of the required reserve has been made as of April 30, 1949.
